

Promoting Independence, Supporting Communities Supporting people to stay independent in the community

A workshop for Parish & Town Councils, in association with the Leicestershire & Rutland Association of Local Councils.

Monday 16th November, 18.30 – 20.30
County Hall, Glenfield

Refreshments and a light finger buffet will be available from 18.00 onwards.

AGENDA

18.00	Registration + Information & Advice ‘Market Place’ A range of staff from the council and partners will be on hand to provide delegates with information about support and advice services available
18.30	Welcome & Introduction Derk van der Wardt, Consultation & Engagement Manager Chief Executive’s Department The future of Adult Social Care Amanda Price, Strategic Planning & Commissioning Manager Adults & Communities Department Questions & Answers
19:00	The changing role of Parish Councils Jake Atkinson, Chief Officer, LRALC
19:15	Facilitated Table Discussions <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Information & Advice- Early Identification- Community initiatives
20:20	Conclusions & next steps Derk van der Wardt & Jake Atkinson
20:30	Close

For more information and to book your place for this event, please e-mail nik.green@leics.gov.uk or phone 0116 305 7034

To access the Adult Social Care Strategy and consultation, please visit www.leics.gov.uk/asc_strategy. Closing date: 20 November 2015

Please note there are works on the A50 which may affect your travel to and from this event. Please allow yourself additional time for travel. For more information, please visit <http://www.leics.gov.uk/nwleicester-overview>